See You In Hell

Monster Magnet

A little room on 7th street is getting cold
And secrets sing like mescaline, they don't get old
I saw a pattern on a blanket just the other day
It looked just like the pillow you threw awayYou were like a Zombie
When you told me what you did that day
And I drove out to the meadow lands
To throw our baby awayWhat time and snow couldn't bury
Years of forgotten guilt
That little body's calling, rising up
From under a jersey landfillI just woke up the other night
And now I know what to do
I guess I'll see you in hellA creature's waitin' for a battle in the ancient swamp
Your pissing on the Pyramids
Ain't gonna move things along
So pack your scars and your makeupAnd give your money to the poor
'Cos you've been riding a twenty gaged ticket
Into reality's doorI just woke up the other night
And now I know what to do
I just woke up the other night, girl
And now I know what to do
I guess I'll see you in hellThe TV's gone and you've been half an hour paid
And your punk rock band still sucks anyway
I was talking to Jesus through a hole in the floor
He said our time is up, we can't stay anymore, no moreA little room on 7th street is getting cold
And secrets sing like mescaline, they don't get old
I saw a pattern on a blanket just the other day
It looked just like the pillow you threw awayI just woke up the other night
And now I know what to do
I just woke up the other night, girl
And now I know what to do
I guess I'll see you in hellYeah, I'll see you in hell
I'll see you in hell
Yeah, I'll see you in hell
