Going Nowhere

Sugar Ray

I'm lost in a world full of sound
Where gravity's pulling me down
But I've arrived and going nowhereOh, what can I do
Oh, what could I say
When everything's upside downOh, what can I do
There's nothing to say
When I've arrived I'm goingI'm lost but it won't get me down
I'm king of the loneliest ghost town
Faces that don't come around
'Cause I've arrived and going nowhereOh, what can I do
Oh, what could I say
When everything's upside downOh, what can I do
There's nothing to say
There's nothing to sayI covered a world full of nothing
I'm running in place
I'm back here where I started
Standing in my wayI'm going nowhere
I'm going nowhereOh, what could I do
Oh, what could I say
When everything's upside downOh, what can I do
Oh, what could I say
When everything's upside downOh, what can I do
There's nothing to say
There's nothing to sayOh, what can I do
Don't break me
Oh, what could I say
I'm fading outOh, what can I do
There's nothing to say
When I've arrived I'm going nowhere
