

Nightingale

Lisa Ekdahl

If a bird sat down upon my shoulder
Would I know if it's a sparrow?
Just as well now it could be a nightingale
If I had the wealth of all the universe
Would I be a pharaoh?
Just as well now I could use my
Might to sail away
I know everything seems so real
I know we're on a spinning wheel
I know it would be so nice, almost paradise
If you and I just sit together
If you listen close enough
My song will hit you surer than an arrow
Then you'll hear me singing like a
Nightingale at play, at play
