

Nothing

The Womack Family Band

To change the sight of all you see, child imagine a landscape so fine until you're swimming in the sea of diamonds without ever spending a dime
 It's nothing, nothing, nothing
 Nothing but a whole lot of time.

To rise above the clouds and be free, babe forget about your doubts and your fears what is there to be so afraid of with the arms of your love waiting near?
 Nothing, nothing, nothing
 Nothing but a whole lot of tears.

From the mountain down to the valley heard an echo alive like a bird and in her light I took the hand of freedom as I sank my feet deep into the earth
 It's nothing, nothing, nothing
 and I can't tell you what it's worth

If I'd spent my days always wanderin' how different our love could have been I tried to understand your pain, Ma the pain I took silently in It's nothing, nothing, nothing
 Nothing but a whole lot to bend

To escape your fate is a cheat, my friend
 I whispered as you turned your head There's nothing so stubborn as your own defeat and I quietly went back to bed
 Nothing left here to ever end.
