Suffer Never

Finn Brothers

Has she fallen from the sky
So heavy of heart
The sigh was on her tongue
The grief was in her armsShe will suffer never
I mean her no harmShe'll come slowly rising
On the air
Lift her weightless
On the air, on the airAnd the silence was enough
To shed my guilt
She will always know my wishes
'Cause I remember how it feltKisses slowly rising
On the air
Lift her weightless
On the air, on the airShe will suffer never
I mean her no harm
