New Year

Test Your Reflex

I'm running 'round in circles Trying to find some peace of mind Cause it's a lonely place when All the we need we cannot find Wait, wait cause I don't wanna be lost Wait, wait cause I don't wanna be lost And I don't wanna be the one to drag you downWait For a new day, for a new year I'll be standing on my own In a new place, with my hands out Looking for the answersIt's such a sweet solution To close our eyes and walk in line And all our contributions Just seem to fade away with time Wait, wait cause I don't wanna be lost Wait, wait cause I don't wanna be lost And I don't wanna be the one to drag you downWait For a new day, for a new year I'll be standing on my own In a new place, with my hands out Looking for the answersWait For a new day, for a new year I'll be standing on my own In a new place, with my hands out Looking for the answersI cant stand here, waiting With my hands out, for the ceiling But I won't lie, I won't try I can't walk such a straight line And these bright lights, surround me People are so friendly But I won't lie, I won't try I can't pretend that it's alright, noWait For a new day, for a new year I'll be standing on my own In a new place, with my hands out Looking for the answersWrite down your name C'mon baby, write down your name C'mon baby, write down your name C'mon baby, write down your name
