

Rescue Me

Digital Summer

So maybe I'm the one that needed saving
Someone to rescue me from myself
And now the memories are slowly fading
Wish I could see me through the eyes of someone else I remember the look in your eyes
When you were reaching out for me
And I tried to help you
But now im haunted by the hero that I couldn't be So maybe I'm the one that needed saving
Someone to rescue me from myself
And now the memories are slowly fading
Wish I could see me through the eyes of someone else I drown out my thoughts now
As pathetic as it may seem
So just take it away now, help me forget how
I just stood there frozen by your screams So maybe I'm the one that needed saving
Someone to rescue me from myself
And now the memories are slowly fading
Wish I could see me through the eyes of someone else I know I shouldn't blame myself
For what I cannot control
It seems so impossible for me to ever let this go So maybe I'm the one that needed saving
Someone to rescue me from myself
And now the memories are slowly fading
Wish I could see me through someone else
Maybe I'm the one that needed saving
Can you help me now
Trapped in this life with no way out
Sometimes I wish I was someone else
Someone else
