

Parade

Regal

I'll blow these flames away
And wash these streets of fame
I hear these birds all singing
But I'm not I've ended my parade
It was never mine to take
A petty little dream I always had I can't stay the same
But I'm not ready to give it up now
Wait, steady the frame
I'm not ready to give it all now
Not now You always wanted me to fray
Said I'm better off this way
But there's nothing you can do I don't care what you say
Life's worth living and turning the page
And there's nothing you can do I can't stay the same
But I'm not ready to give it up now
Wait, steady the frame
I'm not ready to give it all now
Not now I can't stay the same
But I'm not ready to give it up now
Wait, steady the frame
I'm not ready to give it all now
I can't stay the same
But I'm not ready to give it up now
Wait, steady the frame
I'm not ready to give it all now I'll blow these flame away
And watch these streets of fame
I hear these birds all singing
But I'm not.
