Just Enough (feat. Charlene Marie)

Andrew Ripp

If I knew what I was gonna have to go through
To get to where I wanna go to
I don't know if I'd've come this far
Without you I couldn't tell a lie from the truth
There's no way I could see
What I want isn't what I needYou give me just enough
To keep me going when my hope is lost
Yeah not too high or low
You always know
What's too little or too much
You give me just enoughIt's okay
Even when the blue skies black gray
And even too soon is too late
Everything I had is all washed awayYou give me just enough
To keep me going when my hope is lost
Yeah not too high or low
You always know
What's too little or too much
You give me just enough hurt
To keep me awake when I need a real love that's not fake
You give me just enough
You give me just enough
