

You're Better Off Free

Golden Earring

From the Album:

* Seven tears Don't ever look behind you when you get on your way

You better keep on rolling, could be your last day

And if you torture your brains

By thinking how far

Then lean on me and I'll pull down that bar

refrein:

Oh, something gotta hold on me

That's why I'm movin'on so easily, yeah, yeah

Well maybe I'm wearing rags

But I'm on no-ones back

So do give a smile to me

Believe me you're better off free

Don't ever look behind you when you get on your way

You better think about tomorrow

Forget about today

And if you torture your brains

By thinking how far

Then lean on me and I'll pull down that bar

refrein:

Oh, something gotta hold on me

That's why I'm movin'on so easily

Oh maybe I'm wearing rags

But I'm on no-ones back

So do give a smile to me

Believe me you're better off free

Don't ever look behind you when you get on your way

You better keep on rolling, could be your last day

And if you torture yourself

By thinking how far

Then lean on me and I'll pull down that bar

refrein:

Oh, something gotta hold on me

That's why I'm movin'on so easily

Oh maybe I'm wearing rags

But I'm on no-ones back

So do give a smile to me

Believe me you're better off free
