Shadowscape

Beseech

I am the guardian, the keeper of time
I hold the seven keys to places you never been
I show you secrets of things you never have seen
So trust in your darkest thoughts and follow your dreamDreams of another home with pieces of tomorrow
I've seen the future and what is yet to be
So raise your hands and call to the Gods
Your destiny is ready to lead the dreamsI can behold your dreams 'cause I gave you life
Death is another home of fallen angels
Your life will become a thought and you will forget
So sleep into deeper minds and dream to rememberThe dreams take me away, I'll become inhuman
I touch the deeper soul of eternity
So raise your hands and call to the Gods
Your destiny is ready to lead the dreams
