

Happiness(Live@N-Joy)

Sunrise Avenue

I've been running far away from love
I've been trying to rise above
Thought I'd be cooler with no one
And I thought it would be easy
I thought it's easy There was not a warning sign on you
There was nothing I could do
You opened all the gates from me
And you made me see it's easy
You just feel the love and sing Better for worse, to rain or shine
Now you're mine, it brings me
Happiness happiness happiness
You are the one (you bring me happiness)
You call me dear and hold me close
Give sweet love and it glows
Happiness happiness happiness
You are the one (you bring me happiness) Lately she's been dreaming about the one
About her prince, the golden son
She's waiting for the perfect match
But that ain't quite the catch
It's easy
She should find someone who sings Better for worse, to rain or shine Bill and Johnny found a brand new life
In their bedroom Bill is the wife
They're holding hands and kissing deep
And they don't need no ladies for them
It's so damn easy
