Something wicked (Part 3)

Iced Earth

I walk the earth, the wicked one
Baptized in fire, vindication's only son
Through folds of space and time, I've sown my evil seeds
Till mankind is erased, my last prolific deedHe walks the earth, the wicked one
(I walk the earth)
Injecting our will till man's time is done
(Your time is done)The watchers eye has sealed your fate
(I've sealed your fate)
Upon your deaths the Elder wait
(I am the one)I am your Antichrist, destroyer of mankind
Forged in sacred flames my power is divine
I am your coming curse, hellfire in my eyes
For your crimes on my kind the human race will dieHe walks the earth, the wicked one
(I walk the earth)
Injecting our will till man's time is done
(Your time is done)The watchers eye has sealed your fate
(I've sealed your fate)
Upon your deaths the Elder wait
(I am the one)I'm the one born of flames
Your hatred has brought me to this place
This is a dying world
I'll bring it new life in form of your dreadIn the sixth hour on the sixth day of the sixth month
I was born into this world
Now that the wheel's in motion
Unstoppable force, undaunted by your pleas
There's no sympathy in this soul, just hatred within me
