

Cosmic Cortex

Vektor

Immersed in a colossal squall
The endless storm grows and evolves
With purpose to accelerate
The progression of the human race
Your mind enters a dimension of thought
Wisping forms flow through it
Just like a moon pulling the tide
The blackened ebb of Zeitgeist
It takes control of all your senses
Tightening its hold, it breaks your defenses
Cosmic Cortex
Bursting with gamma rays
Cosmic Cortex
You're pulsing through its veins
Cosmic Cortex
Will melt your brain
It takes its fears and makes them your own
And you become its drone
You're trapped between two hemispheres
Enveloped by the years
The brain cannot truly create
Only build upon its existing slate
So we expand our totality
A cranial, mass singularity
Taking control of all communications
Watch the Cortex grow
It's a mental infestation
Cosmic Cortex
Bursting with gamma rays
Cosmic Cortex
You're pulsing through its veins
Cosmic Cortex
Will melt your brain
Feel, Sense, Share
Breathe the looming atmosphere of Hate, Doubt, Fear
Between the two hemispheres of Self and Mass, Torn
To create within the same pulsing brain

That will claim to protect: The Cosmic Cortex
All that has passed
All thoughts amassed
Speed through the curve
Too far too fast
To resist is to be destroyed
Terror rises from the East
A neural web flowing like tidal debris
Versed, coerced, immersed
The Master Mind that shapes and turns this earth
The cosmic brain appears
As a celestial sphere
Grey matter that collects
Consciousness
The cosmic brain inscribes
Tidal minds
And then infects
No one defies
The ever-growing mind
All thought exhumed in
The all-consuming Cosmic Cortex
Collect, infect
