Rest Your Head

Brett Fuentes

Rest Your HeadRest you head

It's gonna be fine

Don't you fret

It'll be alrightBullets crack the sky

Given my chances I will not make it happen

But only for you

Can I make it through

Fortunate for meWe cast ourselves aside with I am not responsible

We cast ourselves aside with I have nothing to saySo rest your head

It's gonna be fine

Don't you fret

It'll be alrightAngels far below

If we look now we will not see the ground

Chump with too much coin

Why did we listen

It will not matter nowWe cast ourselves aside with I am not responsible

We cast ourselves aside with I have nothing to sayI have nothing to say
