Girl With Combination Skin

Boy George

Her mother called her Angel
So imagine her surprise
When she walked into the party
With a black boy by her side
She said, "You don't understand me"
I can never win
Sometimes I get angry
I'm the girl with combination skin
Her mother called her Angel
So imagine her surprise
When she walked out of the bedroom
With a black boy in her eyes
She said, "You, you don't understand me"
I, I can never win, never win
Sometimes I get angry
I'm the girl with combination skin
Her mother called her Angel
So imagine her surprise
When she walked into the party
With a black boy by her side
She said, "You, you don't understand me"
I, I can never win, win
Sometimes I get angry
I'm the girl with combination skin
I'm the girl with combination skin
I'm the girl with combination skin
