

Two Versions of Tomorrow

Eleanor Friedberger

Never seen nothing like this on my own
Bringing rain on sunny days
I catch a bus just to walk me home
Let me know I'm really not alone
I could always stay for more
I could always stay for more
I would always stay for more
I would always stay for more
Got this star above my head
Above our bed, making her own???
But wind to you came bang and bang
She won't fly away, no, just scream, scream
I would always stay for more
I would always stay for more
I could always stay for more
I could always stay for more
I won't let go back today 'cause I've got nothing to say
The play that piano will play it for another
Listen to my old songs,
Two versions of tomorrow
No, what you want is what you're hatin'
Things don't work out in the end
Have an open invitation
I could always be your friend
I could always stay for more
I could always stay for more
I would always stay for more
I would always stay for more
