

Endless Madness Descends

Krisiun

Down below the remains of my grave
An incessant summoning rages on Evoking and descending into pure obscurity
Scepters of madness surround meTransgressing visions and horrors
Of my cursed blasphemous past
Brimstones stench, from my ashes arise
Erupting blind maggots and wormsWithin the downfall of shadows
My fierce spirit rides againRevengeful creature of hatred
Massacre of nations I've seen
Enchanted as cursed
By the serpents from the deepAt nightshade my soul drifts
Inbreeding the hate profanation
Incantation of power's corpses
Of angels I devourer
Bring of revengeAccursed creature of hatred
Spells of desecration I cast
As I ride through the maze of death
Upon the kingdom of madness
At each dawn I dieCreature of hatred entangled into madness
Ritual of blood for my existence
Secrecy of black rites I evoke
Killing and dying, evoking, descendingFor its power for me conceived
For its spells for me revealed
