

Hybrid Moments (Xelius Project Remix)

Helalyn Flowers

There is nothing between evil and love
If the enemy is a part of your life
Even happiness can be full of hate
Living a hybrid moment
There is nothing between morning and night
If a part of your regrets is alive
Even innocence can be full of rage
Living a hybrid moment
Such a beautiful cry
for a horrible pain
It's such a beautiful mess
In a horrible stand
Such a beautiful night
In a horrible game
Such a beautiful dream
with a horrible end
It's such a beautiful day
Full of horrible lies
Such a beautiful world
with a horrible fate
It's such a beautiful smile
On a horrible face
Such a beautiful life
Full of horrible hate
Living a hybrid moment
There is nothing between pleasure and pain
If you opened just a part of your cage
An invisible appearance is just
Living a hybrid moment
Such a beautiful cry
for a horrible pain
It's such a beautiful mess
In a horrible stand
Such a beautiful night
In a horrible game
Such a beautiful dream
with a horrible end
Full of horrible lies
Such a beautiful world
with a horrible fate
It's such a beautiful smile
On a horrible face
Such a beautiful life
Full of horrible hate
