Your Eyes

Xscape

You're not in control when there's demands put on your heart
You don't even know 'cause when it's real you fall too hard
And yet even so, you try to play like nothing's wrong
No you can't run away, there is no hiding place
'Cause you can't run from your heartYour eyes, they tell me secrets that you, you can't deny
Your eyes, they show me feelings that you hold deep inside
How would I know the secrets that you try to hide?
'Cause when I look in your eyes, the truth is alive
I knew you'd be mineSo now that it's on, it's time to face reality
It's time to be strong, take all your insecurities, baby
Don't be afraid, you gotta let your feelings flow
No you can't run away, there is no hiding place
You gotta be true to your heartYour eyes, they tell me secrets that you, you can't deny
Your eyes, they show me feelings that you hold deep inside
How would I know the secrets that you try to hide?
'Cause when I look in your eyes, the truth is alive
I knew you'd be mineNow that you're all turned out, don't you just love the way that it feels?
Now you can't do without my love and you know that's for real
Now why you deny yourself, I will never, never, never understand
Because I love you and you love me too
And that's just the way that it is, yeahYour eyes, they tell me secrets that you, you can't deny
Your eyes, they show me feelings that you hold deep inside
How would I know the secrets that you try to hide?
'Cause when I look in your eyes, the truth is alive
I knew you'd be mineYour eyes, they tell me secrets that you, you can't deny
Your eyes, they show me feelings that you hold deep inside
How would I know the secrets that you try to hide?
'Cause when I look in your eyes, the truth is alive
I knew you'd be mineYour eyes, your eyes, your eyes
Your eyes, your eyes, your eyes
How would I know the secrets that you try to hide?
'Cause when I look in your eyes, the truth is alive
I knew you'd be mine
Your eyes, your eyes, your eyes
