

He Doesn't Have to Know

Dot Dot Dot

He doesn't love you like I do (&)
He can't kiss you like I do Well I've been working up the nerve and
This bottle's all but gone
I've been writing down the words, but
All the sentiment is wrong Now I'm feeling nothing and
There's nothing I won't do
It's the middle of the night
I've got nothing left to lose Sorry I've been
Drinking alone by the telephone and I
Called you up 'cause
I need your voice And I know I shouldn't have
But girl I miss you so much (&)
He doesn't have to know She can't touch me like you do
She's been perfect, but she's not you Well I've been working up the nerve and
This bottle's all but gone
I've been writing down the words, but
All the sentiment is wrong Now I'm feeling nothing and
There's nothing I won't do
It's the middle of the night
Drinking alone by the telephone and I
Called you up 'cause
I need your voice And I know I shouldn't have
But girl I miss you so much (&)
He doesn't have to know When he's laying by your side,
Do you think of some times?
Do I ever cross your mind? (2x) Sorry I've been
Drinking alone by the telephone and I
Called you up 'cause
I need your voice And I know I shouldn't have
But girl I miss you so much (&)
He doesn't have to know I know. I know
I just need your voice And I know I shouldn't have
But girl I miss you so much (&)
He doesn't have to know
