

"Redbud Tree"

Mark Knopfler

Hunted down I came upon
A place of ferns and grass
Gathered to a redbud tree
And now their footsteps pass
Where I crouch in dread
Discovery my certain death
Bur leaves reaching for my head
As I suspend my breath Redbud tree shelter me shelter me
Redbud tree shelter me shelter me Those days of fear are gone
Yet I am pledged to her
As to my only one
My lovely protector Redbud tree shelter me shelter me
Redbud tree shelter me shelter me
Redbud tree shelter me shelter me
Redbud tree shelter me shelter me.
