Fly On the Wall

Thunder

Better lock the window, better bolt the door
Change your number, and don't take that call
In conversation, better watch your words
One wrong move now, I'm gonna dig that dirtNobody's ever too big to burn
I leave no stone unturnedIn the quietest moment, when the lights go down
When you don't expect it, I will be around
Only one intention, wanna see you fall
Cos I'm that fly on the wallWell I give no quarter, and I can't be bought
No need to justify it, if I'm within the law
It's only information, from behind closed doors
And if the public want it, I'm the cheapest whoreNo need to worry, I can supply
Cos everybody's got something to hideWhen you see that shadow, or hear that sound
When your guard is dropping, I'll be back in town
Only one intention, wanna see you fall
Cos I'm that fly on the wallYou can't sleep when I'm lurking
Even though you won't hear any sound
I'll be digging your dustbin
If it's there, it will be found(SOLO)In the quietest moment, when the lights go down
When you don't expect it, I will be around
Only one intention, wanna see you fall
Cos I'm that fly on the wall
