

The Hunter

Slaves

It does what it needs to stay strong and to survive, yeah

The hunter

The hunter

You can keep it, don't want it
Keep smiling through your teeth
Know what is it?
Your justice cut the hands off the feet
He was starving
His children was crying to be fed
And now their balling and dying
But at least you're still ahead

Just be patience, keep waiting
That's what they always say
But you're tired and you're aching
And the pain wouldn't go away
So stand up and speak out
See that your needs are met
Or will use it against you
But please pace your beg, yeah

You keep it, we don't want it
You keep it, we don't want it
You keep it, we don't want it
You keep it, we don't want it

It's useless and worthless
When staring at the sun
Oh, it is reckless and pointless
