

Gypsys, Tramps and Thieves

Cher

I was born in the wagon of a travellin' show
My mama used to dance for the money they'd throw Papa would do whatever he could
Preach a little gospel, sell a couple bottles of
Doctor GoodGypsys, tramps, and thieves
We'd hear it from the people of the town
They'd call us Gypsys, tramps, and thieves
But every night all the men would come around
And lay their money downPicked up a boy just south of Mobile Gave him a ride, filled him with a hot meal I was sixteen, he was twenty-one
Rode with us to Memphis
And papa woulda shot him if he knew what he'd doneGypsys, tramps, and thieves
We'd hear it from the people of the town
They'd call us Gypsys, tramps, and thieves
But every night all the men would come around
And lay their money downI never had schoolin' but he taught me well
With his smooth southern style
Three months later I'm a gal in trouble
And I haven't seen him for a while, uh-huh I haven't seen him for a while, uh-huhShe was born in the wagon of a travellin' show
Her mama had to dance for the money they'd throw Grandpa'd do whatever he could
Preach a little gospel, sell a couple bottles of
Doctor GoodGypsys, tramps, and thieves
We'd hear it from the people of the town
They'd call us Gypsys, tramps, and thieves
But every night all the men would come around
And lay their money down
