If He Hung The Moon

Kirk Talley

If He Hung The Moon

In the beginning of time,
He was the Creator,
And into existence He spoke the heavenly blue,
And with one mighty swoop of His hand,
He threw out the stars,
He knew where theyâ€™d land,
So if you think, youâ€™re just drifting along,
Then I have good news.

CHORUS
And If He hung the moon,
I know He will help you,
And if He holds the sparrow in flight,
Heâ€™ll hold you too,
Consider the lilies of the field,
How much more He loves you,
In the beginning of time, you were on His mind,
When He hung the moon.

VERSE 2
Now you may feel like the world,
Lays hard on your shoulders,
And even your closest friend in life is pulling away,
Though you have tried so hard and lost,
There is still hope,
Just look to the cross,
There you will see just how much the Savior
Really loves you today.

TAG
In the beginning of time, you were on his mind,
When He hung the moon.
He hung the moon.
