

Sweet Sixteen

Billy Idol

I'll do anything
For my sweet sixteen
And I'll do anything
For little run away child Gave my heart an engagement ring
She took everything
Everything I gave her
Oh, sweet sixteen Built a moon
For a rocking chair
I never guessed it would
Rock her far from here
Oh, oh, oh, oh Someone's built a candy castle
For my sweet sixteen
Someone's built a candy brain
And filled it in Will do anything
For my sweet sixteen
Oh, I'll do anything
For little runaway child Well, memories will burn you
Memories grow older as people can
They just get colder
Like sweet sixteen Oh, I see it's clear
Baby, that you are
All through here
Oh, oh, oh, oh Someone's built a candy castle
For my sweet sixteen
Someone's built a candy house
To house her in, oh oh Someone's built a candy castle
For my sweet sixteen
Someone's built a candy brain
And filled it in And I do anything
For my sweet sixteen
Oh, I do anything
For little run away girl. Yeah, sad and lonely and blue
Yeah, gettin' over you
How, how do you think it feels? Yeah To get up in the morning, get over you
Up in the morning, get over you
Wipe away the tears, get over you
Get over, get over My sweet sixteen
Oh, runaway child
Oh, sweet sixteen

Little runaway girl Gave my heart an engagement ring
She left everything
Everything I gave her
Sweet sixteen Built a moon
For a rocking chair
Never guessed it would
Oh, oh, oh Someone's built a candy castle
For my sweet sixteen
To house her in Someone's built a candy castle
For my sweet sixteen
To house her in And I'll do anything
For my sweet sixteen
Would do anything
There's the runaway child Would do anything
For my sweet sixteen
I'll do anything
For little runaway girl Little runaway girl
Oh
