

Feena Roulette

Distant Sun

A hot June night, he leaves his wife at home Electric light, he finds a public phone and calls her up, a shaky tone "this is the last time I am doing it"
'Cos he knows just what he'll getFrom Feena Roulette, put my love right to the test Feena Roulette, I can't get you out my headA heartbeat race, hand drifting down her back
This il-embrace is perfectly intact he has said to himself "this is the last time I am doing it" but he knows just what he'll getFrom Feena Roulette, put my love right to the test Feena Roulette, I can't get you out my headShe's closing in he wanting it so bad
Now he can't win his fate is in her hands
Anytime, any day, she's aware that she can have her way
What she wants is what she getsFeena Roulette, put my love right to the test
Feena Roulette, makes my blood rush to my head
Feena Roulette, put my love right to the test
Feena Roulette, I can't get you out my headMy Feena Roulette
My Feena Roulette
Feena Roulette
Go
