

9 Shades Of Red

Hedley

Where did I go so wrong
Singin' the same sad song
Sittin' home all alone sayin' woe is me
La la la la la la So now I'm callin' all of my friends
And this is where the fun begins
What would it take to afford a little break from this boredom little Ha ha ha ha Holler back for a planned attack on this unsuspecting town
We may be lookin' pretty but we make an awful sound It's you and it's me and that's all we'll ever need
And yeah we'll tear up the streets and we'll dance until we bleed
And then we'll sleep when we're dead cause we'll take over this town
And paint it 9 shades of red gettin' down is what we're up to tonight And now security is havin' a fit
Cause nobody is givin' us shit
And as the perty get cloudy yeah we start to get rowdy
Screamin' rah rah rah rah rah
And if we gotta deal with the cops
Try to shut us up and say the fun stops
God we gotta keep grooving while your mouth keeps moving Mr.
Blah blah blah blah
Holler back for a planned attack on this unsuspecting town
We may be lookin' pretty but we make an awful sound It's you and it's me and that's all we'll ever need
And yeah we'll tear up the streets and we'll dance until we bleed
And then we'll sleep when we're dead cause we'll take over this town
And paint it 9 shades of red gettin' down is what we're up to tonight So now we gotta get up and shout
Until everybody kicks us out
Or till the lights come on and the fights go on It's everything that we're all about
So now we gotta get up and shout
Until everybody kicks us out
Or till the lights come on and the fights go on
It's what we're all about It's you and it's me and that's all we'll ever need
And yeah we'll tear up the streets and we'll dance until we bleed
And then we'll sleep when we're dead cause we'll take over this town
And paint it 9 shades of red gettin' down is what we're up to tonight It's you and it's me and that's all we'll ever need
And yeah we'll tear up the streets and we'll dance until we bleed
And then we'll sleep when we're dead cause we'll take over this town
And paint it 9 shades of red gettin' down is what we're up to tonight
