

You

Dead Soul Tribe

Can you fill this emptiness inside
Can you share the secrets that you hide
 Trying to find
 A friend to end my pain
 The faces change
 But the feeling stays the sameYou
 I need you
I need youI ve walked the longest mile of life alone
 Loneliness is the oldest friend I ve known
 Will an angel fall for me someday
 When I see her spread her wings
 She just keeps on flyingYou
 I need you
I need youI need a friend I can run to Someone to crawl inside
 Someone to share my secret fear
Someone who hurts as much as II can t believe that I can be so blind
 That such a simple thing is so hard to findYou
 I need you
 I need you
