

I'm Good

Ashton Shepherd

You call me up to tell me that you're sorry,
But sorry is as sorry does

You can call it what you want to,
But dammit, don't you dare call it love

You've got the nerve to ask me if I'm OK,
Boy give it a rest.

'Cause I'm good, and getting' better at being my best.

They say time can heal all wounds,
Well the sooner the better for me

'Cause a heart at war
Dang sure will make you be all that you can be

You tore me down piece by piece
But believe me there's plenty of me left.
Boy I'm good, gettin' better at being my best.

I've been thrown a lot of curves in this ol' world
But it's only made me strong
I suggest you do what I've done
And make this call your last one, and move on No's my final answer, rest assured
That I'm not after anything less
Boy I'm good, gettin' better at being my best.

Oh I've cried a river, but you don't remember,
Let me refresh your memory one last time.

Boy I'm good, gettin' better at being my best.
Boy I'm good, gettin' better at being my best.
Boy I'm good,
Oh I'm getting' better
I'm good, gettin' better at being my best

Lyrics powered by lyrics.tancode.com written by Shepherd, Ashton / Dillon, Dean / Dodson, Dale

Lyrics Â© EMI Music Publishing, Sony/ATV Music Publishing LLC

Lyrics provided by <https://damnyrics.com/>