Heal Me

Sunrise Avenue

This is something I cant hide
Cant throw it away
This is something I cant fake
They know you're away
They know how to break me
They know you're far awayIf this sadness takes its place
I'll free the space it needs
I'm hiding in the place
Where we share the days
Where we share the nights
Go through dark and lightCould you believe I'm waiting for someone
Could you believe I'm holding the night with my hands
Alone in the night on my own
I feel the pain inside me
Only you can heal meThis is something I cant take
I feel so lame
There is nothing in my mind
But you all the way
You rule every moment
You're the air around meLove's a lonely road sometimes
I keep moving on
Towards the moment you'll be mine
A long way to go
To where we belong
We'll be there before longCould you believe I'm waiting for someone
Could you believe I'm holding the night with my hands
Alone in the night on my own
I feel the pain inside me
Only you can heal meBy sharing this moonlight
And the tears in my midnight cry
I need to hear you breathe by
Me in the night, deep in the nightCould you believe I'm waiting for someone
Could you believe I'm holding the nightCould you believe I'm waiting for someone
Could you believe I'm holding the night with my hands
Alone in the night on my own
I feel the pain inside me
Only you can heal meAlone in the night on my own
I feel the pain inside me
Only you can heal me
