Forbidden Love

Anggun

Said with no sound
Another new round
The moon is up high and here I go again
You gave me a sign
That your love is still mine
And I feel the fire burns inside me
Say it once more
Say it for sure
I hear your heart is calling out my name
Like a whisper
Long and tender
Make me alive inside your eyes again
How I wish I could try to run away
From this power
The power of forbidden love
How I wish I could try to turn off the volume
From these voices
The voices of forbidden love
How I wish I could close my eyes to all of these
Temptations
Temptations of...
You are captured
Fall in rapture

I don't think my heart will ever let you go
For another
Love from other
Cause I can give everything you've always dreamed
Make me alive inside your eyes again
How I wish I could try to run away
From this power
The power of forbidden love
How I wish I could try to turn off the volume
From these voices
The voices of forbidden love
How I wish I could close my eyes to all of these
Temptations
Temptations of...
How I wish I could try to run away

From this power
The power of forbidden love
How I wish I could try to turn off the volume
From these voices
The voices of forbidden love
How I wish I could close my eyes to all of these
Temptations
Temptations of forbidden love
