Let It Go

Day26

verse1
i took down the pictures of you and me and i changed the locks on my door don't wanna see your name on my phone when it rings and i don't dream about you no more (i can't believe) i held on for so long knowing that you moved on the only thing that's left for me to do is Hook-
Let It Go
Movin on feelins gone
i can see the light now I'm free from all the pain that comes with lovin ya

Let It Go
Took control
now i know my future's starting right now i finally closed that book forevers gone its over now verse2
it broke my heARt to watch you through it all away There was nothing i wanted more devastated waited patiently only to find i'm over it don't die without you no more (now i'm free) from all the lies you told now that i'm on my own i am so thankful its the end of the road
