Eva

Orgy

You know I've started to grow since you've been away
Lately it's scarier not knowing what's become of you
Are you proud of me now? I can't tell
I'm not as fearless as youStill I pretend that you're still standing by
To show me wrong from right
Never got a chance to say good-byeTake this gift from me, hold it deep in mind forever
And never let this go
Take this gift from me, hold it deep in mind forever
And never let this goI used to think you were crazy
When you were hooked to the screen
But now they tell me that you're in a better place
But where did you go?And I swear sometimes you're watching over me
Still I'd give the world for the chance
Just to see your face againStill I pretend that you're still standing by
To show me wrong from right
Never got a chance to say good-byeTake this gift from me, hold it deep in mind forever
And never let this go
Take this gift from me, hold it deep in mind forever
And never let this goNow there's nothing left but time
Know that I'm following you
Eva's always on my mind and it makes me wonder
What happened to you?
You know it makes me wonderStill I pretend that you're still standing by
To show me wrong from right
Never got a chance to say good-byeTake this gift from me, hold it deep in mind forever
And never let this go
Take this gift from me, hold it deep in mind forever
And never let this goTake this gift from me, hold it deep in mind forever
And never let this go
Take this gift from me, hold it deep in mind forever
And never let this go
And never let this go away
