

Anderson

Ataris

[This track is also included into 2002 edition of "Anywhere But Here"]What have I done, what have I got?

Your life is really useless, your life is really shot.

Gun toting losers, beer swillin' hicks.

Backwards hilljacks, stupid teenage chicks.

Hate it here, I hate it here this Anderson hell.

Life sucks but you're too blind to tell.

Don't you know I really hate it here and

I will always hate it.

Don't you know I really hate it here?

Who have you done, who have you got?

Your wife's a douchebag, your kid's a little fucking snot.

Nothing to do, no place to go you're so blind you don't even know.

Hate it here, I hate it here this Anderson hell.

Life sucks but you're too blind to tell.

Don't you know I really hate it.

Oh yes I really hate it.

I'd rather be anywhere but here.

Will you ever set out or will you just die?? (Probably die)

I don't care anymore or even want to try.

Trailer park bred, fast food fed,

Forever K-Mart shopping, fucked in the head.

Hate it here, I hate it here this Franklin hell.

Life sucks but you're too blind to tell.

Don't you know I really hate it here

Still I'll do nothing about it...

I'd rather be anywhere but fucking here.
