Sunnier Days

Diego Garcia

The heart has a way
Of pushing you though the darkest days
We live in our mind
And it makes us all forget sometimes
Can make life hard to tellBut if you can take a moment
And just listen to your heart
You will find there something to relive the pressure
From the start
If you look outside and take a breath
You're really not too far from sunny days
Oh you're really not too far away from sunnier days
Sunnier days
Some of us are blind
Some of us know the answer's hard to find
We live in our mind
And it makes us all forget sometimes
So just take a breath
For the messages and causes you had to make
Can make life hard to tell
Cause I can see it on your faceCause you need to take a moment
And just listen to your heart
You will find there something to relive the pressure
From the start
If you look outside and take a breath
You're really not too far from sunny days
Oh you're really not too far away from sunnier days
Sunnier days
Sunnier days
Oh not too far away from sunnier days
Sunnier days
Sunnier days
The sun is out, the sky is blue
The outside's waiting there for you
The sun is out, the sky is blue
The outside's waiting there for you
And the sun is out, the sky is blue
The outside's waiting there for you
And the sun is out, the sky is blue
The outside's waiting there for youBut if you can take a moment

And just listen to your heart
You will find there something to relive the pressure
From the start
If you look outside and take a breath
You're really not too far from sunnier days
You're really not too far away from sunnier days
Sunnier days, sunnier days
Sunnier days oh
Oh you're really not too far away from sunnier days
Sunnier days, sunnier days
Oh not too far away from sunnier days
Sunnier days
Sunnier days
Oh not too far away from sunnier days
Sunnier days
