

Perfect

Berman

the perfect end to a perfect crime, just another bad mistake, i see a dream in the distance, that's not too far away i want it to be normal, i want it to be fair, i want it to be everything, i want it to be clear, i want it to be now, and i want it to be You, i want it to be perfect, but i don't know what to do, this new start seems too familiar, i can't live it all again, they say rules are better broken, but broken hearts can't bend
it's not fair
