Blue

Smashing Pumpkins

Hey Blue, all your love is strange
Come out, with all those crazy names
So true
When you lie
For you, Blue
Right or wrong
I belong
Right or wrong
Hey Blue, where'd you run to now?
Hey Blue, miss you since they found you out
I've been waitin' such a long time
For your smile
For you
I lay with you, this velvet morning
Stay with me, for a while
Where we run to, is up to you
Just stay with me, for a while
