

One Last Look

Nat Baldwin

Jump on board to my steam train
Hands can pray but eyes will say
You're right, I'm wrong
I just can't take
Love me, lose me Suzie Q.
This old blue is crazy too
I'm asking you to miss me
Kiss me Q
Women, why you be so mean
Women, got a hold on me
Women, why you plead with me
Hey, hey, hey
If I told you once
Then I told you twice
And if that won't work
I'll give you one last look
Then you're own your own
Spin me round and upside down
Shoot bang, bang, if you leave this town
Nothing you can say or do will prove
That I need you morning, night and noon
And I feel you when you're saying choose
But I can't change the doing that I do
Women, why you be so mean
Women, got a hold on me

Women, won't you plead with me
Hey, hey, hey
If I told you once
Then I told you twice
And if that won't work
I'll give you one last look
Then you're own your own
Oo ah
Oo ah oo ah ah
Oo ah oo ah ha
Oo ha ha hey, hey
I said oo, ah, oo, ah ha hey, hey, hey
If I told you once

Then I told you twice
And if that won't work
I'll give you one last look
Then you're own your own
If I told you once
Then I told you twice
And if that won't work
Woo oah yeah
One last look then you're own your own
You'll be on your own
