

Common Ground

Tommy Castro & The Painkillers

Everybody's just lookin for the same thing
I'm a lot like you
You're alot like me
A little piece of mind
Enough to eat
We wanna stand on our own two feet
I don't know much
But this I do believeWe got to stand together on common ground
We got to bend together or we'll all fall down
Everybody's lookin for someone to blame
We're not as different as we are the same
We gotta stand together on common ground
Everybody knows that we gotta change things
But all we seem to do is fuss and fight
Left, Right, Black or White
We all dream about the same things at night
Let's wake up people
It's time to build a brand new dayWe got to stand togehter on common ground
We got to bend together or we'll all fall down
Everybody's lookin for someone to blame
We're not as different as we are the same
We gotta stand together on common groundCome On stop throwing stones
Come On
you know you're not alone
Come On
we gotta get together
We're just about to lose our only home
Stand together on common ground
We got to bend together or we'll all fall down
Everybody's lookin for someone to blame
We're not as different as we are the same
We gotta stand together on common ground
Stand together on common ground
Yeah
Stand together on common ground
Reach out your hand now
Stand together on common ground
Everybody get together
