

What Child Is This

Darlene Double

Ohh, oh, ohh, oh, ohh, oh

Ohh, oh, ohh, woo, woo

    What child is this

    Who laid to rest

    On Marys lap is sleeping?

    Oh, whom angels greet

    With anthems sweet

    While the good shepherds

    Watch our keeping

    Mmm

So bring Him incense, gold and myrrh,

    Come peasant, king to own Him

    The King of kings salvation brings,

    Let loving hearts enthrone Him

    Ohh

    This, this is Christ the King,

    Whom shepherds guard and Angels sing;

    Haste, haste, to bring Him laud,

    The Babe, the Son of Mary.

    For raise, for raise this song on high

    His mother sings her lullaby

    Oh joyful, joyful Christ is born

    The Babe, the Son of Mary (Mary)

    What child is this

    What child is this (what child is this yeah)

    This, this is Christ the king

    Whom shepherds guard and Angels sing

    Haste, haste to bring him more

The Babe (oh the Babe) and the Son (and the Son) of Mary (of Mary, Mary, Mary)

    Of Mary (of Mary)

    Of Mary
