

Fly Again

Stooshe

The most beautiful sunset and I turn away
Yeah I saw something perfect and turned it to grey
Your love cut me open, took all whats broken and pulled me together again

I am frozen just knowing it might be too late
Why did I let it slip running deep in regret chasing shadows
Your my love in the dark, I'm the scar on your heart that still aches
Could this be heaven again and again
How can I find my way in?
I danced with the devil and missed out on you,
leaving me with broken wings, yeah
Such a tragedy, what was meant for me?
I just threw it away, pick me up and I swear we'll fly again.

The most beautiful music and I turn it down, mm
It reminds me of us and that your not around
The silence I'm broken is so far from golden, when will I feel you again?

I am frozen just knowing it might be too late
Why did I let it slip running deep in regret chasing shadows
Your my love in the dark, I'm the scar on your heart that still aches
Could this be heaven again and again
How can I find my way in?
I danced with the devil and missed out on you,
leaving me with broken wings, yeah
Such a tragedy, what was meant for me?
I just threw it away, pick me up and I swear we'll fly again.

Ooh, I keep looking for more but nothing comes close to you Baby, can you open that door?
For this fallen angel, I'll be here waiting
Could this be heaven again and again
How can I find my way in?
I danced with the devil and missed out on you,
leaving me with broken wings, yeah
Such a tragedy, what was meant for me?
I just threw it away, pick me up and I swear we'll fly again.
Ooh pick me up and I swear we'll fly again.
