Night Raver

Tribal Seeds

Be careful where you walk
The serpent lies in the dark
Moving through the shadows
In a effort to gain your control
If you're weak you better run
Let the wise man chant him down
Words of the rastaman
Warn to beware of deception of this
Night raver, predator
It was a night raver, predator

So be warned, here comes the storm
Move from harm
So what you fuss what you fighting for
Tricked into a pointless war
Them provoking you to rage
You're vulnerable when you mind is insane
So quick to activate self destruction
Them run up them mouth next thing them pull out a gun
Weak minded man you better run
Let the wise man fix the situation

So be warned, here comes the storm
Move move away, Get away
Late night raver, self predator
Late night raver don't destroy yourself
Don't destroy yourself
Humble down, take it easy
