White Sparrows

Billy Talent

Today I walked down our old street Past the diner where we'd meet Now I dine alone in our old seats The cold wind blows right through my bones And I feel like I'm getting old But I wish I was getting old with youI held your hand when We took shelter from the rain She laughed as we picked out Our children's namesWhite sparrows fell from heaven And carried her away Black arrows cut the strings of my heart I kneel and prayHer clothes hang in the closet still The phone sits on the windowsill And every time it rings, it gives me chills My heart just stopped when I was told Doctor, doctor, on the phone Said my love was never coming homeI hold your casket gently Walking to the grave Dark clouds eclipse The sun won't shine againWhite sparrows fell from heaven And carried her away Black arrows cut the strings of my heart I kneel and prayThey gave her one more day To say the words I couldn't say I'm crying in pain, crying in painAnd I'm not looking for answers No, I'm not looking for answers

And carried her away
Black arrows cut the strings of my heart
I kneel and prayThey gave her one more day
To say the words I couldn't say
I'm crying in pain, crying in pain
Our love will remain, I'm crying in pain
