Perfect One

Lit

I'm an ordinary man With an ordinary life Does she know that I'm alive Man she's really something elseYou're the perfect one And I don't expect a thing from you at all You're the perfect one And I can't even breatheYou are so unpredictable Sometimes I'd like to be that way Your charm, so irresistible You are really something elseYou're the perfect one And I don't expect a thing from you at all You're the perfect one And I can't even breatheI get weak when she's around I can't speak when she's around Yeah, she turns me upside down Man, she's really something elseYeah, you're the perfect one And I don't expect a thing from you at all You are everything That I never knew, I've always wantedYou're the perfect one And I don't expect a thing from you at all You're the perfect one And I can't even breatheI'm an ordinary man
