Hideaway

Ivy

All gone
The sun is off to bed
The day's done
So rest your head
We'll fly to a place across the bay
Outside, where it's dark and grayWe'll hideaway
Under silver waves
We'll lie awake
Under a silver sky, we'll hideawaySo long
The night is closing in
Everyone is alone again
We're going on a midnight ride
Under stars and satellites
A thousand miles from where we've beenWe'll hideaway
Under silver waves
We'll lie awake
Under a silver sky, we'll hideaway
