Think Again

ABC

Better call and collect
Treat me with respect
If you think our love is pedigreePush a button, disconnect
Dial again, redirect
You're wrong, you know it isn't meTotally misguided
Babe, you're misadvised
Don't even try to fight it
Your promises are liesDid you think our love was sacred
Well, it's much too over-rated
Think again, you're wrongAnd our love's a precious memory
Better look what heaven sent me
Think again, you're wrongDon't need a horoscope
Don't need a telescope
To see the way you cheat on meThink I'd give up hope
Hanging by a rope
If I thought you'd never set me freeTotally misguided
Think our love is strong
Think I'd get excited?
I think you'd got it wrongDid you think our love was sacred
Well, it's much too over-rated
Think again, you're wrongAnd our love's a precious memory
Better look what heaven sent me
Think again you're wrongI'll admit to being confused
And I'm used to being used
Think again you're wrong
So wrong, so wrong, so wrongThink again, think again, think
Think again, think, think again, thinkLove to believe you, love you and leave
You're wrong, so wrong
Hate to deceive you, love you then leave
You're wrong, so wrongNo secret sneak preview
Don't need to see
You're wrong, so, so wrong
