What I Wanna Know

Serena Ryder

You brought me a country
You brought me a voice
You brought me a reason
You gave me a choice
To fall without landing
To hold onto love
To live the impossible
What I wanna know
Is if you're leaving me now
Where am I gonna go
If it's not in your arms
What am I, what am I
what am I to do
who am I, who am I
Living without you
What am I, what am I
what am I to do
who am I, who am I
Living without you
You said I was dreaming
You spilt all the beans
You said keeping secrets
Is what happiness means Suppose you were lying
Not just in my bed
I can't shake the pictures
You've locked in my head
What I wanna know
Is if you're leaving me now
Where am I gonna go
If it's not in your arms
What am I, what am I
what am I to do
who am I, who am I
Living without you
What am I, what am I
what am I to do

who am I, who am I

Living without you
Do I watch you leaving
Do I have no choice
I got inspriation
Tearing up my voice
Can I make you want me
Can I love you more
How can you leave me here
Broke on the floor
Gotta move on got to be stronger
Gotta move on got to be stronger
Gotta move on got to be stronger
Gotta move on got to be stronger
Gotta move on got to be stronger
Got to move ooooonn
Got to be stronger
Got to be stronger Got to be Got to be
What I wanna know
Is if you're leaving me now
Where am I gonna go
If it's not in your arms
What am I, what am I
what am I to do
who am I, who am I
Living without you
What am I, what am I
what am I to do
who am I, who am I
Living without you
What am I, what am I
what am I to do
who am I, who am I
Living without you
What am I, what am I
what am I to do
who am I, who am I Living without you
