Cinderella

Northstar

Many hours ago took off my coat and faced a cold
A language that I am familiar with
In my mind
I'm striking you dead but your absolutely fabulous
Diamond eyes shoot your scars and fake a smile
You're olive
And easily crushedWell maybe I'll try this time
For my friends
Because tonight is for all of them
And someday
I'll make you mine
SomedayA billion hours ago choked on the coal stuck in my throat
A feeling that I am familiar with
Razor wrists lie the gorgeous words that will put her under my skin
But I'm alone againWell maybe I'll try this time
For my friends
Because tonight is for all of them
And someday
I'll make you mine
SomedayHey Cinderella
Hey Cinderella
I'm a viscous admirer
A fairy tale liar
A fairy tale liarWell maybe I'll try this time
For my friends
Because tonight is for all of them
And someday
I'll make you mine
Someday
